The handkerchiefs were vended by Mrs. W. S. Nicoll and Miss Sabey, neckties sold by Mrs. E. B. Carley, and cookies distributed at a small price by Miss

During the latter part of the evening Senator H. P. Baldwin turned auctioneer and quickly disposed of the few fancy articles still remaining. About $475 were realized by this sale for "sweet charity's sake."

POLO NOTES.

The eighteen polo ponies to be used at the coming tournament by the Maui team will be shipped today per steamer the result was a rare exemplification Maul, so as to give them ten days or more to become accustomed to the warmth of Honolulu. The names of some of these locally famous little animals are as follows: "Foxy Grandpa," 'Bess," "Tom Thumb," "Son of a Gun," "Flora Dora," 'Jubilee." "Cowby." 'McKinley," "Polae," "Major" (H. A. Baldwin's), "Major" (G. Wilbur's), "Queen," "Shoofly," "Circles," "Makewao Boy," "Folly," and two others. It is a great pity that "Aguinaldo," the best polo pony on Maui, is not in condition to play.

Messrs. F. F. Baldwin and George Wilbur will accompany the horses to Messrs, von Tempsky, H. A. Baldwin, and W. O. Aiken will depart. The five members of the Maul team have been doing a dood deal of practicing during the past month-nothing to compare with the hard and thorough work of the Oahu players, but much in comparison with what has been done by them in the past, that is in the way of team work.
